

ACTION/THRILLER

Carter, Ally. I'd Tell You I Love You, But Then I'd Have to Kill You.

Gallagher Academy is a top-secret school for girls who wish to be spies. When Cammie, a Gallagher girl, falls for Josh, a boy from town, the comic situations commence as she tried to hide the true purpose of her schooling.

Higson, Charlie. Silverfin.

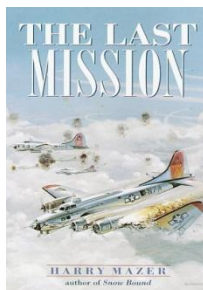

Bond...young James Bond. James is 13 years old and a new boy at Eton when he becomes embroiled in a scandal during a trip to Scotland. In his first spy adventure, Bond faces perils and controversies that will become commonplace to him but for now are brand new.

Horowitz, Anthony. Stormbreaker: An Alex Rider Adventure.

The first in the popular Alex Rider series. Alex becomes a teen operative with a secret spy force in Britain after his uncle is mysteriously murdered. The government realizes that a teenager would be the best choice to complete his uncle's mission, thus Alex's career begins...

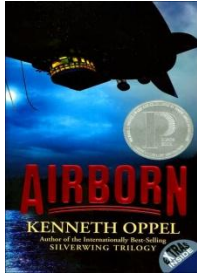

Mazer, Harry. The Last Mission.

Even though this book is older, it's a sure hit with young men who don't want to read anything. A Jewish teenager decides to enlist in the US Air Force in 1941, and while he flies many successful bombing missions, he is eventually taken prisoner in a German POW camp.

ACTION/THRILLER

Oppel, Kenneth. Airborn.

Matt Cruse is a cabin boy aboard the airship the Aurora. The crew of this dirigible has to battle air pirates and cloudcats while making its way across the Atlanticus and Pacificus oceans. Every reader is assured of an exciting thrill ride when they board the Aurora!