

SUPERNATURAL

Bruchac, Joseph. Skeleton Man and Return of Skeleton Man.

When Molly's parents don't return for several days in a row, she is taken to live with her long lost "uncle," a tall, skeletal man who locks her in her room every night. Molly suspects he intends to harm her and she comes up with a plan for an extremely dangerous escape that could end in her death.

Gaiman, Neil. The Graveyard Book.

When Bod's family is murdered, he is taken in by the ghosts in a local graveyard as their own. As he grows up he learns the ways of the ghosts and discovers the true meaning of family while uncovering the mystery behind the murder of his family.

McNish, Cliff. Breathe: A Ghost Story.

Jack's mother believes that the best thing for him is to move to the country, until he almost dies during one of his frequent asthma attacks. Little does she know that his asthma is being triggered by an evil ghost mother who is living in the house and sucking the life out of ghostly children who are trapped there.

Meyer, Stephanie. Twilight.

Vampires. Bella and Edward. `Nuf said.

Naylor, Phyllis Reynolds. Jade Green: A Ghost Story.

SUPERNATURAL

Judith must learn to live with the ghost of Jade Green when she moves into her uncle's gothic house. She smuggles in a jade green picture frame which further awakens the ghost, leading to revelations that sometimes the ghost isn't the most evil entity.

Shusterman, Neal. Full Tilt.

In the nightmare amusement park, studious, adventurous Blake is forced to ride and escape 7 amusement park rides in one night in order to save his impulsive younger brother. Will he succeed or will fright get the best of him?

Wooding, Christopher. Poison.

When pherries spirit away her sister, Poison must venture beyond the realm of the Black Marshes to save her. Using her knowledge of ancient stories, Poison vanquishes her horrible foes and ultimately learns a great deal about herself. Exceptional choice for the hardcore horror reader!